

Bishop Ransford Adjei Asare is the founder and general overseer of Dunamis Praise Chapel International located in Ghana, West Africa and Minnesota, USA. Called into the five-fold ministry over 23 years ago, he continues to be a blessing to the body of Christ.

Bishop Ransford began his ministry preaching the gospel in the market places, schools, villages and at mini crusades all across Ghana. He spent countless days and nights sleeping in the park, and waiting on God on the Prayer Mountains and forests of Ghana. He has come this far by the grace and anointing of God. His message of salvation and deliverance has taken him across Ghana and the United States of America.

He is a worshiper, prophet, author, teacher, mentor and sought-after international conference speaker. He exemplifies the life and love of Christ and has dedicated his life to encouraging men and women to live up to their full potential in Christ. Bishop Ransford A. Asare is married with three children and lives in Minnesota, USA.
