

Prophet Victor Richard Tamakloe is the founder and Senior Pastor of Covenant Grace International Church located in Caprice, Accra, Ghana. With his Prophetic Ministry of which he is well known in most West and Central African countries, he is also a Teacher and an Evangelist.

Prophet Victor has a prophetic mantle, and his vision is to "search, raise, and help the church to mature their spiritual and prophetic gifting's while proclaiming to them the salvation in Christ Jesus." His Ministry goes beyond ethnicity and gender boundaries.

Guided by his vision, he is someone who preaches and practices forgiveness and compassion to all. In addition to being a Prophet which is his life calling, he cares deeply about all people, not just as a Priest but as someone who sees wrong in our world and does whatever he can to help make things better for those who find themselves in difficult situations across nations.

Prophet Victor was a fellow of Day Star Bible College, Accra Ghana.

He is married with a son.