

Tutu Kwachie is a Pastor with the Headquarters branch of the Lighthouse Chapel International-Qodesh, Accra. As a psalmist, he oversees a worship choir of about 250 worshippers at the Qodesh on a regular basis. He has a rare gift of walking in the seer's anointing and the interpretation of dreams and visions. He preaches with clarity under the power of the Holy Spirit. Seer Tutu as affectionately called is a founding member of a non-denomination prayer fellowship called "Faithfuls" in Accra, Ghana. In recent times, the fellowship has grown to a membership of about 300 faithful believers. His ministry is couple with miracles, signs, and wonders with the sounding of his prophetic Jewish horn – "The Shofar". With the burden to reveal the heart of Jesus to the world, Pastor Tutu has ministered to a lot of saints worldwide with a primary mandate of sweeping souls from the natural ground of death to the resurrected ground of eternal life.

In circular circles, Pastor Tutu is an achievement-oriented Investment Banking Professional with hands-on experience in business support, corporate valuation, and fairness opinions across various industries. Pastor Tutu currently serves as the Head, Structured Finance in uniSecurities, the investment banking arm of uniBank Ghana Limited. In the past, he also worked with Madison Street Capital LLC/Houlihan Capital LLC, Chicago based investment banking firms in different capacities. He ended his stint with traditional banking at Bank of Africa, Ghana, as a Unit Head in Corporate Banking.

Pastor Tutu holds a BA (Honors) Degree in Economics with Statistics from the University of Ghana, and a Postgraduate Diploma in Management Science and E-Commerce from London School of Commerce. He is also an MBA graduate from Charles Sturt University in Australia, with specialization in Finance. Pastor Tutu is currently a member of the International Research Association and a Licensed International Financial Analyst Charter holder. He is also a member of the International Association of Consultants, Valuators, and Analysts.

Pastor Tutu is married to a very beautiful wife with two lovely children.